The New History (Tarikh-i-jadid) of Mírzá Alí Muhammed, the Bab 1975

Tahrik-i-jadid 1957 in this pioneering book negar mottahedeh explores the central issues of vision and visibility in iranian culture she focuses on historical and literary texts to understand the use of visual culture and performance traditions in the production of the contemporary nation tracing the historical mediation and dissemination of ideas for national reform in the modern period of iran the book examines the various discourses that have constituted the image of the unrepresentable babi as the figure of iran s other in her exploration of gender and iranian cinema the author powerfully argues that this unrepresentable image continues to haunt contemporary iranian cinema s representations of the nation as cinema began to displace other forms of representation in iran islamic culture attempted to keep the motion picture industry free from what it perceived to be the taint of foreign values and intervention with insight and detail mottahedeh looks at the revealing ways in which contemporary iranian cinema has dealt with representing an unrepresentable national modernity articulated through traversals in time and space these deeply national tropes of traversal shaped the image of the báb against which nineteenth century iran produced its own modernity this highly original work signaling a paradigmatic shift in iranian studies and gender studies will be an invaluable resource for scholars in cultural iranian or film studies
